Did you know...

- Australian Agribusiness projects are up to 100% tax deductible to investors
- The Agribusiness industry is worth over $160 billion pa to our economy and over $5 trillion pa world-wide
  - The Agribusiness managed investment industry is now worth over $100 million and growing

Agribusiness is ideal for people who are...

- Paying a high rate of income tax
- Expecting to pay capital gains tax from the sale of shares or property
- Wanting to save for children's education, and/or would like to pay-out their mortgage sooner
  - Looking to diversify their investment portfolio

Leading agribusiness experts and project managers, Timbercorp, will answer the tough questions:

How can they continue to make money for their investors in a time of drought?

Who buys their produce and how strong are the alliances? How does Oz stack up against overseas competitors?

Timbercorp will announce their 2007 projects, so existing agribusiness investors should not miss this evening either

Tuesday 6 March 2007
7.15pm (for a 7.30pm start)
The Hendrie Group Training Room
Ground Floor, 23 Lacey Street Croydon
