The success of our research has been wonderful, but we now have a great responsibility to share our knowledge.

Wenatex has been operating in Europe for over 40 years and is now in Australia. We have millions of satisfied Wenatex customers worldwide and as a result we are looking to extend our brand awareness here.

In order to satisfy the ever increasing demand, we would like to invite you and your partner as our personal guests to one of our entertaining information evenings, which includes a wonderful dinner.
