Here are CDs for young and old to enjoy on long car trips over the summer, or to listen to at other times when you just want to lie back and relax. They are also great for people who have limited vision and are finding print difficult. We have enjoyed some of them ourselves, driving the truck to sales and find listing to stories makes the time pass effortlessly. These Stories make great Gifts too – so check your Christmas list and tick some presents off. Please see the how to order section on the next page for full ordering details.

1 Baum, L. Frank. The Wizard of Oz. A three-CD set of the famous story, read by Henry Shale. When Dorothy and her little dog Toto are taken by a tornado into a magical world the Scarecrow, the Tin Woodman and the Cowardly Lion all help her to get to the Emerald City. But will Dorothy ever see Kansas again? Great for car trips! * ISBN 9780141808314 R.P. $24.95 now $12.95

2 Benson, E.F. Lucia's Progress. Lucia is now living permanently in the ancient town of Tilling, a fact most annoying to her arch-rival, Miss Mapp, who resents Lucia's challenges to her social supremacy. A glorious comedy of wit and snobbery ensues as the pair battle for control. Read by Miriam Margolyes on 3 CDs. Great fun, great value. * ISBN 9781405508728 R.P. $32.95 now $14.95

3 Benson, E.F. Trouble for Lucia. Lucia has reached the pinnacle of village life by becoming Mayor of Tilling. But her arch-rival, Elizabeth Mapp has been appointed Mayoress. It is a busy time for Lucia with a novelist, an artist, and an opera singer staying in Tilling, a resurrected budge and the overnight stay of a duchess that nobody will believe happened. Gloriously read by the actress Miriam Margolyes on 3 CDs. * ISBN 9781405508742 R.P. $32.95 now $12.95

4 Burley, W.J. Wycliffe and the House of Fear. An exciting thriller read on 6 CDs by Peter Kenny with a running time of 6 hours and 37 minutes. When Detective Superintendent Wycliffe is holidaying in Cornwall he meets the dysfunctional Kemp family who have lived in the area for 500 years. Roger Kemp has had two wives disappear under suspicious circumstances, and Wycliffe is drawn into investigating the strange family. * ISBN 9781409123941 R.P. $39.95 now $14.95

5 Farrell, J. G. Troubles. Set on the east coast of Ireland largely in the down-at-heel Hotel Majestic, in 1919. The Major is there to become united to his fiancée whom he met in Brighton during the war. The welcome he receives is not quite what he expected and he is soon drawn into Irish politics. Read by Irish-born actor Sean Barrett on 4 CDs over 5 hours. * ISBN 9781904605997 R.P. $39.95 now $14.95

6 Gaskell, Elizabeth. The Best of Elizabeth Gaskell. Her story Mary Barton, about a woman torn between two different men is dramatic and romantic and is read to perfection by Maggie Ollerenshaw. North and South, her largely autobiographical story of a genteel country family shocked by squalid inner-city conditions when they move into town is read by actress Jenny Agutter. There are 4 CDs in all, running time is 5 hours. * ISBN 9781904605836 R.P. $51.95 now $19.95

7 Ibbotson, Eva. The Secret Countess. An enchanting novel read by the English actress Sian Thomas. Anna is an 18-year-old-Russian countess. She and her family must escape from the revolution - but Anna ends up in London in 1919 penniless. She begins working as a servant for the aristocratic Westerholme family...and falls in love with the young earl. Approximately three hours listening time. * ISBN 9780230735866 R.P. $24.95 now $12.95

8 Lane, Andrew. Young Sherlock Holmes: Red Leech. Sherlock Holmes knows that adults keep secrets. But he didn't expect to find the world's most famous assassin apparently living in Surrey when he's meant to be dead - and his own brother somehow involved. To discover the truth, Sherlock goes to America. Read by English actor Dan Stevens on three CDs. * ISBN 9780230745131 R.P. $29.95 now $14.95

9 Martel, Yann. Beatrice and Virgil. Henry is pulled into the world of a strange elderly taxidermist and becomes increasingly involved with the lives of a donkey and a howler monkey (Beatrice and Virgil) and the epic odyssey they undertake. A brilliantly original story by the Booker Prize-winning novelist, read on 5 CDs over 6 hours by Mark Bramhall. * ISBN 9781847679246 R.P. $39.95 now $19.95

10 McCall Smith, Alexander. The Careful Use of Compliments. Philosopher Isabel Dalhousie, editor of The Review of Applied Ethics is facing the challenges of motherhood with her adored son Charlie and enjoying her relationship with James, Charlie's father. She is drawn into the story of a painter's mysterious death off the island of Jura and wrestles with the Machiavellian and suspiciously handsome Professor Dove. Beautifully read on 5 CDs by the actress Hilary Neville. * lpp ISBN 9781405500586 R.P. $39.95 now $14.95

11 McCall Smith, Alexander. The Charming Quirks of Others. Isabel Dalhousie is asked by the wife of a trustee of the illustrious Bishop Forbes school to look into a poison-pen letter that makes insinuations about applications for the new principal. Her niece Cat has a new, hearty boyfriend. And her fiancé, James, is pursued by a pretty cellist with a tragic story. Wonderfully read on 4 CDs by Hilary Neville. * 176pp ISBN 9781405508858 R.P. $35.00 now $12.95

12 McCall Smith, Alexander. The Dog Who Came in from the Cold. In Corduroy Mansions, Pimlico, lonely William French and his faithful dog Freddie de la Hay are recruited into MI6 by an attractive female operative. Barbara Ragg is tempted by romance. Caroline finds James sadly lacking as a suitor. And Berthea Snark is called away to protect her brother from a pair of New Age con artists. Read by British actor Andrew Sachs (you may remember him as Manuel in Fawlty Towers) on four CDs over five hours. * ISBN 9781405508599 R.P. $35.00 now $12.95

13 McCall Smith, Alexander. The Lost Art of Gratitude. Isabel Dalhousie is worried about her niece Cat's latest unsuitable boyfriend. She is also considering the seismic change in her life wrought by her small son Charlie and his father, whom she adores. This collection of four CDs is read by the actress Hilary Neville. * 1pp ISBN 9781405503457 R.P. $35.00 now $12.95

14 Rankin, Ian. The Complaints. Malcolm Fox works at the disliked Complaints and Conducts Department, where cops investigate other cops. He has plenty of family problems to worry about, and a new task - to prove a policeman called Jamie Breck is crooked. Read on six CDs by James Macpherson (he played DCI Jardine in Taggart for years). * ISBN 9781409101512 R.P. $49.95 now $19.95

15 Sewell, Anna. Black Beauty. It is the famous story of a brave horse that most of us have sobbed over (oh the dreadful cruelty to poor Ginger). Black Beauty is one of the best-loved creatures in children's literature as this horse, who always does his best, is moved from one owner to another, experiencing good and bad treatment from humans. Read by Ben Fogle on 2 CDs over 2.5 hours. * ISBN 9781904605003 R.P. $29.95 now $14.95

16 Shelley, Mary and Stoker, Bram. Horror Double Bill: Frankenstein: Dracula. 18 Smith, Wilbur. Birds Of Prey. Sir Francis Courtney and his son Hal are lying in wait for a treasure-laden galleon of the Dutch East India Company. It was 1667, a time when international maritime law permitted acts of piracy, rape and murder, otherwise punishable by death. Read by Martin Shaw (you may have seen him on TV as Commander Adam Dalglish), on four CDs. * ISBN 9780230744998 R.P. $28.95 now $12.95

19 Smith, Wilbur. The Seventh Scroll. This Scroll holds clues to a fabulous treasure of a buried Pharaoh. Duraid Al Simmu and his beautiful Egyptian-English wife are on the trail, but when Duraid is brutally murdered, Royan returns to England. With the help of archaeologist Nicholas Quentin-Harper she begins the quest anew. A rip-roaring adventure read on three CDs by the eminent English actor James Fox. * ISBN 9780333907177 R.P. $32.95 now $14.95

20 Summerscale, Kate. The Suspicions of Mr. Whicher: or the Murder at Road Hill House. A riveting true story - 'the original Victorian Whodunnit' which provoked national hysteria. On 30th June 1860 the Kent family awoke in their house in Road, Wiltshire to discover their youngest son had been gruesomely murdered in the night. But the house was bolted from the inside - was it one of the family? The celebrated detective, Jack Whicher is sent to find the murderer. Read by Harriet Walter on five CDs. * ISBN 9781408800102 R.P. $35.00 now $16.95

21 Voltaire. Candide. Voltaire, a 'genius of the enlightenment', was critical of the superstitions and religious attitudes of his time. The story of Candide and his tutor Pangloss who travel the world following the philosophy 'All is for the best in this, the best of all possible worlds' is sharp and witty. The characters encounter opposition to their outlook and Candide realises some of the dark truths of life. Read by Andrew Sachs on 4 CDs over 3.5 hours. * ISBN 9781904605942 R.P. $51.95 now $19.95

22 Waterhouse, Keith and Simm, John. Billy Liar. Billy lives in Yorkshire. His life is dull and stifling, his energetic imagination causes him no end of trouble. He lies his way in and out of every situation which causes even more entanglements such as 3 fiancées. Tom long ago played Billy's mate at La Boite in Brisbane. After spending far too long at the pub before performance he lurched onto stage spoonerishly saying 'Ah Billy there be mubble up at trill' which has evolved into quite the family saying about untoward events. There are 6 CDs with 7 hours playing time. * ISBN 9781906147761 R.P. $40.95 now $19.95
